LADIES' NIGHT

The Committee, to which was referred the subject, have decided to hold a reception to the Sir Knights and their ladies on Thursday, February the fifth, at the Hotel Somerset, Commonwealth Avenue, Boston.

Arrangements are progressing very favorably and will be perfected at a meeting of the General Committee to be held at a very early date.

The Commandery is to be accorded the use of the large Banquet Hall, the Ball Room on the Newbury Street side, the Reception Rooms and Ladies' Parlors; these rooms, practically on the same floor, are particularly well situated for the enjoyment of the sociability which should characterize all occasions of this nature.

It is desired, so far as practical, that the Sir Knights wear their Commandery coat with belt and white gloves.

It has been deemed best to keep the price of tickets at the same figure as in the past.

Further details will be given at the January Conclave of the Commandery.

For more general information, and for the benefit of those who were unable to be present at the January Conclave, the Committee submits the following:

After careful consideration it was decided to hold a reception to the Sir Knights and ladies, Thursday, February 5, at the Hotel Somerset, Commonwealth Avenue.

Details have now been completed and include a reception at 6.30 o'clock, after which the banquet will be served in the large banquet hall at 7 o'clock. Dancing at 10 o'clock or before as the members may elect.

Tickets, at $2.50 for each person, may be obtained of the General Committee, whose names are appended, and it is urged that attention be given the matter with the least delay in order that we know the number to be provided for.

ST. JOHN'S DAY

SIR KNIGHT:

Boston Commandery will observe St. John's Day by an outing at Templeton, Mass., June 27 and 28.

The Sir Knights with their ladies will leave Boston, North Station, Fitchburg Division, Saturday morning, June 27, for a two days' outing at the Templeton Inn, Templeton, Mass. Special Pullman drawing-room cars will be attached to the regular train leaving at 9.30 A.M., arriving Gardner at 11.25 A.M., transferring to special electrics for the Inn.

Saturday afternoon will witness the sports, for which these outings of Boston Commandery are justly famous. There will be dancing Saturday evening, music by the Inn orchestra, during which the prizes for the sports will be awarded.

Sunday may be devoted to such recreation as the Sir Knights may elect. Templeton is one of the beauty spots of northern Worcester County, and many picturesque walks and trolley parties may be arranged.

The party will leave the Inn, Sunday, about 4.15 P.M., in special electrics for Gardner, to connect with the 5.21 train, to which will be attached our Pullman cars, for Boston, arriving at 7.15.

The price of tickets will be $8.50 for each person, and may be obtained of the Recorder and Committee.

Rooms will be in charge of Sir Knight the Captain General, and will positively be assigned in the order in which they are engaged.

Baggage will be in charge of a special messenger, and should be sent to the station or delivered in person at the station in good season. Red checks for baggage will be ready at the June Conclave or by mail of the Recorder.

There will be no parade from the Temple to the station. Sir Knights are requested to assemble at the station and not at the Temple.

The matter of dress is left to the discretion of the members of the party.

In conclusion, your Council beg to say the proprietor of the Inn is a member of our Commandery and he assures us nothing will be left undone for the comfort and pleasure of those who participate in this pilgrimage.

BOSTON COMMANDERY K. T.

ST. JOHN'S DAY.

SIR KNIGHT:

Ivanhoe Commandery of Gardner, having learned of our pilgrimage to Templeton on Saturday, June 27, has voted to parade with music and banners, receiving us at Gardner station and escorting us to our special electric cars. The Sir Knights of Ivanhoe Commandery have kindly donated the use of their automobiles for the purpose of conveying the ladies of Boston Commandery from the station in Gardner to Templeton and return.

In acknowledgment of this courtesy and the interest displayed in our visit to their section, you are requested to appear in full Templar regalia, gauntlets, black trousers and shoes, on disembarking from the train in Gardner. In order that you may be relieved of the care of regalia cases and swords, we will transport all red-tagged articles from the Armory to the North Station on Saturday and return to the Temple on Sunday. Access may be had to the Armory any day during the week on application to the Superintendent of the Temple, and on Saturday at 8 o'clock A.M.

As stated in the previous circular, there will be no parade in Boston.

Details are all perfected, and as accommodations at the Inn are somewhat limited, it is desirable that tickets be obtained without delay.

FREDERICK C. GRAVES,
Eminent Commander.

BOSTON—DE MOLAY JOINT OUTING.

SIR KNIGHT:

Your Committee, to whom was referred the matter of Joint Outing, have made arrangements to hold the event Saturday, September 12, at the Villa Napoli, Nantasket. Sir Knights intending to participate are requested to assemble in the armory of the Commandery in time for the lines to be formed at 8.30 A.M. for a short parade to Rowe's Wharf, connecting with boat leaving at 9.15 A.M. The baseball game and various sports will follow immediately after our arrival at the hotel and will be under the direction of a committee consisting of the Generalissimo of each Commandery. Suitable prizes have been provided for the winners in the several events; no entrance fee will be exacted for taking part in the games; line up and do your worst.

The outing of last year was an unqualified success, and many who attended have spoken of it during the past winter; the arrangements thus far completed for this year, however, promise even better than Nahant; the grounds at the Villa Napoli are spacious, the dinner will be much better and the transportation facilities superior.

Regalia cases will be taken care of in Boston and Nantasket should it be desired to change raiment on arrival at the hotel.

Full Templar regalia, with gauntlets, will be worn, and the Committee earnestly solicit a generous turn-out; but do not let the matter of dress deter you from joining us if it is not convenient to appear in regalia.

Please do not neglect to return immediately the enclosed card as it is absolutely necessary that we know the approximate number to be provided for at the hotel.

The price of tickets has been placed at $2. Application should be made at the earliest time to the officers or to the following:
